Re: Maine Republican Party, Mid-Year Report RFAI response

Dear Kaitlin:

Please accept the following as the Maine Republican Party's response to the September 6, 2011 RFAI from the Commission.

Item No. 1 - The error will be corrected and the Mid-Year Report amended accordingly. Allocation transfers to the Party's federal account for this period remain within the acceptable limits of the new ratio. Therefore there is no resulting overpayment and no transfers back to the party's non-federal account are required.

Item No. 2 - The 5/10/11 disbursement for "professional services" was a payment for legal services provided to the Party in connection with a state administrative proceeding. The report will be amended to more accurately describe this expenditure as legal services. The 5/10/11 expenditure to the Portland Country Club, which was described as "4.1.11 event", was a room rental expense. The description will be amended.

Item No. 3 - Memo entries will be created in the amended report.

Item No. 4 - Memo entries will be created in the amended report.

Item No. 5 - Memo entries will be created in the amended report.

Paid for and authorized by the Maine Republican Party, William P. Logan, Treasurer.
Not authorized by any candidate or candidate committee.
Maine Republican Party, 9 Higgins St., Augusta, ME 04330 - (207) 622-6247

Item No. 6 – The expenditures related to the April 1, 2011 event were associated with fundraising activity. They were inadvertently reported as administrative. The report will be amended accordingly.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'William P. Logan', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
